

THE HAMLYN SEMINAR

Launching the publication of the 2017 series of Hamlyn Lectures

Thinking about Statutes: Interpretation, Interaction, Improvement

Author:

Professor Andrew Burrows, MA, BCL, LL.M (Harvard), QC (Hon), FBA, DCL, Barrister and Honorary Bencher of Middle Temple, Professor of the Law of England and a Fellow of All Souls, University of Oxford

Chair: Professor Avrom Sherr

Discussants:

Rt Hon Lord Justice Philip Sales, Lord Justice of Appeal

- Lecture 1: Statutory Interpretation

Professor Jenny Steele, York Law School, University of York

- Lecture 2: The Interaction between Common Law and Statute

Daniel Greenberg, Parliamentary Counsel, Berwin Leighton Paisner BLP, Associate Research Fellow, Institute of Advanced Legal Studies

- Lecture 3: Improving Statutes

Wednesday 12 September 2018, 17.00-18.45

Venue: Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, 17 Russell Square, London WC1B 5DR

The Hamlyn Seminar is free but advance booking is requested:

TO BOOK: <http://ials.sas.ac.uk/events/event/16437> (or email IALS.Events@sas.ac.uk)

For further information about the Hamlyn Trust - <http://socialsciences.exeter.ac.uk/law/hamlyn/hamlynseminars/>

ADMISSION FREE – ALL WELCOME